South River Inspector Honored by the American Society of Home Inspectors® for Long-Time Service

South River, January 12th 2009: Robert C. Smith of Alert Home Inspections, a local firm based in South River that conducts inspections of new and existing homes, was honored recently by the American Society of Home Inspectors for 10 years of membership. Robert has been an ASHI Certified Inspector since January of 1999.

The American Society of Home Inspectors, founded in 1976, is the oldest, largest and most respected international professional organization of independent home inspectors in North America. Its Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics is the benchmark for professional performance in the field.

To become an ASHI Certified Inspector, a member must meet rigorous professional and technical requirements, including the successful completion of two comprehensive exams. In addition, he or she must perform at least 250 fee-paid home inspections that meet or exceed the ASHI Standards of Practice.

Robert conducts existing and new construction pre-purchase, pre-listing and maintenance inspections in the South River, East Brunswick, Sayreville, Old Bridge and Edison area. Further information about Alert's home inspections is available by calling 732-432-9101 by visiting the inspector's Web site at www.njinspectors.com.
